

Session 7: When Do I Need a New Record?

- What constitutes a major title change?
- What other situations require a new record?
- How do I close out a record for a serial that has ceased?
- How do I link records?

1

Decision Process: Determining Major Changes

- AACR2/LCRI:
 - 21.2C (Serial title changes)
 - 21.3B (Responsible body changes for serials)
- CONSER Cataloging Manual, Module 16
- Publisher really intend to change the title?
- Look at all the issues in hand
- Check in OCLC

2

Major and Minor Changes

AACR2 uses the concepts of “major change” and “minor change” as follows:

- A major change is a change that requires a new record
- A minor change does not require a new record and can be noted in the record when important

3

Major and Minor Changes

- Major changes include:
 - Major changes in title
 - Changes of corporate body in main entry (as 110 heading or 130 qualifier)
 - Edition statement (in some cases)
 - Physical medium
- Minor changes include:
 - Minor title changes
 - Numbering
 - Edition statement (in some cases)
 - Changes other than corporate body to uniform title qualifiers

4

Changes in Title Proper

5

A Few Considerations

- Consider only the title proper ($a, $n, $p)
 - Changes to other title information do not matter!
- When considering whether a title has changed, always test it against the title proper (recorded in field 245)
 - Not against the latest variant in 246!

6

Major Title Changes

= Changes that occur in the first five words (or six when initial article) AACR2 21.2C2., a.
(Note: there are many new exceptions to this rule)

The vocational guidance quarterly → Career development quarterly

Iowa historical record → Iowa journal of history

Chemical engineering and mining review → Mining & chemical engineering review

Major Title Changes

= Changes that occur after the first five words that change the meaning of the title or the scope of the serial (AACR2 21.2C2., a.)

The best bed & breakfast in the world → The best bed and breakfast in England, Scotland, & Wales

World meetings. Social & behavioral sciences, education & management →

World meetings. Social & behavioral sciences, human services & management

Major Title Changes

= The name of the corporate body given in the title changes (AACR2 21.2C2., a.) i.e., the change would require a new heading

Tohoku University
